Suits to order,

What was the use of entering the lists to What was the use of entering the lists to gain patronage unless we could offer you something more than anybody yet in the business? We digested that fact thoroughly. The result is plain. The fact that we are already doing more business than any other one house in town demonstrates without doubt that we are giving even more than they ever did before.

-We're giving more actual value for money expended and we're giving them tailoring that ranks as an art. Nothing's

-No cutter is too high priced if he can demonstrate to us that his work is su-perior. Our entire force is made up in just such way. We count on the bulk of business to pay for such an establishment. Every man in our emiloy is the best money can command. And it shows in the work we're turning out. Tailoring with style and character in it.

-Another big special for this week. A suit to order for $8.25. Made right, we The cloths you can judge for yourself. Nothing like them ever sold for such money till we opened here.

Harvard Athletes Triumph Over Wearers of the Blue.

Yale Scores Only 40 Points to 62% for the Cambridge Men-Richards. of the Ells. Carries Off the 100-Yard Dash - Applegate Makes a Plucky Finish in the Balf-Mile Run gave Yale a surprise party this afternoon on Soldiers' Field and put them away to the tune of 62 1-2 points to 40. The Harvard team exhibited strength where it was supposed to be weak. Haigh, the freshman sprinter, failed to come up to expectations and was beaten in a plucky 100 and by an easy lead in the 220 by from the tape in the low hurdles the visi-Dixen Boardman. Hallowell, the Harvard tors would surely have gained another them without a man running at the end of them without a man running at the end of the event. Boal made a mighty throw in the hammer, beating Stillman, of Yale, by ten feet. The other events were mediocre. Ira Richards caught his foot in stake pin in the 160-yard dash and received a severe shaking up. Although lame he pluckly tried to win a place. Fincke tripped over his last hurdle in the high and was beaten out by Abercomble, a freshman. Thomas made an excellent showing in the hurdles for Yale and should be a great man with training. Summary:

100-yard dash—Final heat won by I. Richards, was looked for. Drum cut out a terrific pace for the first 300 yards, but he seemed

TIGERS WIN THE GAMES.

Princeton's Tenm Defents the Athletes From California.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 12 .- In the dual games between the track athletic team of Princeton and the University of California, at Osborn Field today, the CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 12.—Harvard | Tigers secured 10 points to the Westerners' 2, thus winning the meet, and at the same time beating by 11-2 points the Pirates Robbed of Base Hits by Some score made by Yale against the same team last Saturday. A comparison, however, between the Blue and Princeton men, on the basis of this score would be imexpectations and was beaten in a plucky practicable, for had not Hamilton, of finish by Ira Richards, jr., of Yale, on the California, tripped and fallen a few feet in both high and low events and equaled in both high and low events and equaled California, before the match, reported that his men were in much better condition than when they competed in New Applegate, a junior, made a plucky finish in the half-mile run and beat H. P. Smith, of Yale. The Harvard two milers ran away from the Yale men and left ran away from the Yale men and left the week's rest.

Your nervoueness disappears, your sleep is not disturbed by dreams, you regain your courage, and when the treatment is completed, you est with a natural appetite and digest what you eat; your sleep rests you, you think clearly, your memory is good, you work and transact your business intelligently, without the weak, descouraged feeling; because Calthon has been slowly and gradually, but continuously gupplying the nervous system (by restoring the nervous system (by restoring the nervous flaments to a healthy condition) with that which you have robbed your system of.

PROF. JULES LABOURE, of Paris. France, has issued another wonderful work on Nerveus Diseases, and illustrates 35 cases by photographs from life, showing the lab of his marry closus and unfailing preparation of CALTHOS and the condition of some of his patients who were treated for Spermatorrhem, Varicocele and Impotency in the past two years. The following illustration (Case No. 135) which appears on page 381 of Prof. Laborde's last medical work, will give you an idea of the action of his wonderful preparation of Calthos.
